“ Toribio,
Your kind soul is in paradise now and I know you are looking down to your family and watching over them. I pray for your children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, siblings, nieces, nephews and all of your extended family. They are all going through a very difficult time right now but I know that you will never leave their side. The memories they shared with you will always be in their hearts and it will bring them peace and comfort. You will always be loved and never forgotten. Rest In Peace.

To my family,

It is difficult to imagine your life without the people who's been your strongest supporters and your greatest motivators. Your parents are all together now. They're all watching over you. The memories together will keep you going. You will feel their presence even though they are with the Lord. There are no goodbyes because they are in your hearts forever.

God bless you.

Our deepest sympathy,
Yvonne and Martin

“ Mi Quiero Padre...

I can't believe that you are no longer with us. Just as I said at your service, when Mom passed my heart shattered into billion pieces, then when Papa passed that was a big shock to us because it was two months after mom, which made it harder because we were still grieving, then piece of my heart shattered again. As the five years go by we are feeling some peace knowing that they are better than we are. Now, we lose you, the hearts of your oldest grandchildren, son in law and myself are shattered into billions of pieces again. Now what are we going to do with no parents? Mothers Day is never going to be the same and neither will Fathers Day.

Papi, thank you for all the LOVE that you have given us, all the laughter of your funny jokes and faces. Thank you for all of the wonderful memories that we will always and forever cherish. I just thought of a special memory from our childhood. When we were kids we use to sit in front of the window and wait for papi, when we saw him we started to sing " AYE VIENE PAPI" because you always came from work with a bag of candy for us. These are the things that will always stay with us.

Papi, your grandchildren, Jomaira, Sammy Jr y Stephanie are so heartbroken because you will they have lost their last grandparents from my side and neither of you would ever get a chance to meet their children. We are glad that you got the chance to meet Jomaira's kids, Sam's wife Gina and Stephanie boyfriend James. They too loved you very much.

Again, gracias por to mi Padre Chula. Que descansa en paz. Siempre estara en nuestro corazon. (translatio...once again thank you for every my beautiful father, rest in peace. You will always be in our hearts.)

With all our love; your daughter Myriam(muenca), Sammy, Jomaira, Sam Jr and Stephanie. Rest in eternal peace

“ This is one the nicest families I have ever met in my life. I am very thankful for being a new nurse and meeting someone who was always happy to see me. We would always make funny noises when I walked. Thank you so much for raising such wonderful children. I especially love Nancy and Dave. They will be my friends forever and because of them they have helped me become a better person. Rip in papa I loved you very much.
